THREE BOYS SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

Other Proceedings of the Lawrence Circuit Court Now in Session.

The criminal docket ended Tuesday with the trial of Gideon Marcum on a charge of false swearing. The jury found him not guilty. The civil docket now has the attention of the court and will do so for at the least the remainder of the week, possibly longer. When the NEWS went to press last week the case of the commonwealth vs. Tobe Wiley, of Johnson county, charged with obtaining money by misstatements in the sale of insurance stock, was being tried. The jury failed to agree and the case was set for another trial on the third day of the next term.

In the David Carter case, which was tried last week, M. S. Burns assisted in the prosecution and O'Neal, Cain and Thompson conducted the defense.

The regular jury panel took a recess from Friday noon to the following Monday.

A motion in the Wiley case for peremptory instruction to the jury for a verdict for the defendant was overruled.

Elmer Crabtree plead guilty to the charge of breaking into and carrying away goods belonging to the Louisa Furniture Co., and Kendall Arnett and Cecil Adkins were found guilty of receiving the same goods. Each of these boys were sentenced to serve a term of three years in the Kentucky Reform School near Lexington.

The grand jury made its final report on Saturday morning and was discharged for the term. The report is noticed more fully elsewhere in this issue of the NEWS.

The case of Dr. Motley, charged with the murder of F. David Dennis, in Morgan-co., was called for trial on Monday, when the commonwealth answered ready. The defense announced not ready because of the absence of one of the counsel, Judge W. A. Young, and asked for a continuance which was granted and the case was set for trial at the next term. The witnesses on both sides number thirty or more.

WRECK ON MAIN LINE.

The lower span of the C. and O. bridge over the Little Sandy river just below Greenup gave away Sunday afternoon and as a result the C. and O. traffic is badly disarranged. Fortunately no lives were lost. The financial loss, however, is very heavy, as not only did the bridge span give way, but eight cars of eastbound freight fell into the river.

The damage was caused by seven cars being derailed on the bridge, which caused one end of the west span of the bridge to tear loose from the abutment.

Nos. 6 and 4 were sent Sunday over the L. and N. via Winchester. The passengers on 7 and 8 were transferred at the scene of the accident. Nos. 5 and 1 were sent over the N. and W. via Kenova.

MRS. HACKWORTH DIES.

Mrs. Phebe Hackworth, wife of W. W. Hackworth, died Sunday of pneumonia at her home in Ashland after an illness of one week. She was 77 years old and is survived by her husband and four children. One son, James, married Miss Floride Eaves, of this city. Mrs. Hackworth was known by many of our citizens, having been a frequent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Spencer. She had numerous relatives in the Georges creek section of the county. She was a noble character, and her death is greatly deplored.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN BERRY OCCURS AT HUNTINGTON.

Mrs. John Berry, formerly of this city but for many years a resident of Huntington, W. Va., died in that place on Friday last after a short illness of pneumonia. Interment, attended by a large number of relatives and friends, was made in the Huntington cemetery on the Sunday which followed her death.

Mrs. Berry was born in this country 84 years ago and was a sister of M. V. Graham, deceased, and Larkin Graham, of the Big Blaine country. She is survived by her husband and two children, a son and a daughter, both of whom are married and live in Huntington. The son is Wentworth—more familiarly "Wint" Berry, and the daughter is Mrs. Hiram Bloss. For many years the family lived here in a house which stood on the site of the R. L. Vinson residence. Mrs. Berry was a quiet good woman, a faithful wife and devoted mother. Her numerous friends and relatives will learn with regret of her death.

JUDGE M. M. REDWINE ISSUES A CARD

A Few Words to the People of the 32nd Judicial District of Kentucky.

Having recently been called from the private walks of life to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Hanan, who has been elevated to the highest court in our commonwealth, I am at the work of holding your courts for a short time. Yielding to what seems to be a decided majority favoring my election for one regular term, and having a natural desire to be once elected Circuit Judge of my native district and conscientiously believing that I can fill that important office to the better of the law, and that if I am ever elected Judge I must be now, I have decided to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination at the regular primary to be held in August 1915. I do not believe I should or will have any serious opposition, yet, if I do, I hope to have all democrats who believe that with my experience of over 30 years as a lawyer I can and will fill the place with credit to myself and to the good of all the people, to give me their support which I will ever appreciate and gratefully remember.

I pledge to you my word and sacred honor that I will rigidly enforce the law and crush out the evils, which do so much to disturb the good order and peace of all communities.

Very sincerely yours,
M. M. REDWINE.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF NATURAL GAS.

"How long will Lexington have natural gas?" repeated George W. Church, the expert from Pittsburgh. "I should say at least fifty years. Some of our people think the fields we are now working are good for seventy-five years. You see, in the early stages of the development, you Lexington people were supplied from shallow wells in Eastern Kentucky. Now you are tapping West Virginia wells as deep as 3,200 feet. Why we are now sinking a well in Pennsylvania that will probably go 8,200 feet." Mr. Church has been at the Phoenix for some time.—Lexington Leader.

Mrs. A. L. Burton, of this city, was called Friday to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, who had suffered a stroke of paralysis and who is now in a serious condition from its affects. The paralysis affects her left side and also impairs her speech.

C. & O. R. R. WANTS NORTHERN OHIO OUTLET

Report That This Great System is Arranging to Build More Line.

For a number of years it has been known here that the Chesapeake and Ohio railway company wanted an outlet for its northwestern traffic up through Ohio. It has been reported, at various times, that the road wanted the bed of the old canal for an independent line to Columbus.

In order to get this outlet the C. & O. would be compelled to bridge the Ohio and various locations for the bridge have been suggested. Ironton, Ashland, Huntington and Portsmouth have all wanted it. It is now definitely stated that the road has picked on a bridge site at Sciotoville, just east of Portsmouth. The new bridge, it is said, will be started within a year.

The C. & O., so it is said, has two projects under consideration. One is to build a line from Sciotoville to connect with the C. H. & D. at Jackson or Wellston. The other is to run its road up the Scioto valley to this city, where it will either connect with the C. H. & D. or the line may be extended direct to Columbus for a northwestern outlet.

In connection with the statement from Columbus, recently published in this paper, that two stretches of the old Ohio and Erie canal are to be sold, it would seem as if the Scioto valley route might be the one especially as it is a well known fact that the C. & O. has had its eye on the valley route for the past 10 or 15 years.

The two pieces of the canal to be sold were reported to be a stretch from the southern corporation line of this city to High's and a second stretch at Wharton, a few miles north of Portsmouth. The papers in the case are understood to be now in the Attorney General's office.

The coming of the C. & O. by either route, will mean another trunk line for this city. This would put Chillicothe on the line of three great systems, the C. & O., the N. & W. and the B. & O. The C. H. & D. is, of course, controlled by the latter. The coming of the C. & O. would certainly mean an increase of business and prosperity for Chillicothe.

JUDGE BOGGS.

Former County Judge Boggs has gone to his farm on Cherokee, leaving many friends in Louisa who regret his departure. He is a good man and citizen, and leaves the cares of office without reproach.

A BIG DAY FOR LOUISA ODD FELLOWS

District Grand Lodge Holds Session and Confers Degrees.

Monday evening, January 12, was high time in the Israel of Odd-fellowship in this part of the State.

The occasion was the coming of Mr. R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order Of Odd Fellows of Kentucky. Mr. Elliott came to this city on Monday, and that night by virtue of his position as an officer of the Grand Lodge he opened a District Grand Lodge in the hall of Louisa Lodge, in the presence of a large number of resident and visiting brethren of the Three Links. After the lodge had been opened in ample form the three initiatory degrees were conferred upon Dr. C. B. Walter, Leonard Compton and Andy D. See, the work being done in excellent style. While the District Grand Lodge was still open the degree of Past Grand was conferred on Dock Jordan, and William Marrs, of Louisa, and four other brethren.

Many visitors were present from Russell, Ashland, Catlettsburg, Buchanan, Fallsburg, Torchlight, Peach Orchard, Richardson and Paintsville. The interesting meeting closed about 11 o'clock. On Tuesday morning Grand Secretary Elliott left for Paintsville, where he held another District Grand Lodge.

Mrs. A. L. Burton, of this city, was called Friday to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, who had suffered a stroke of paralysis and who is now in a serious condition from its affects. The paralysis affects her left side and also impairs her speech.

A METEOR PASSES OVER THIS CITY

The Event Occurred Early Monday Night and Was Seen by Many.

On Monday evening last Mr. Albert Murray, of this city, reported to the NEWS that about dark that day he saw a brilliant meteor pass over this place, going in a straight line from east to west and disappearing below the western horizon. As it neared the hills the light from the meteor zigzagged considerably, or as Mr. Murray expressed it, assumed the shape of a worm fence. Several boys who were playing football near the stock pens also saw the unusual visitor and heard the noise made by it in its flight.

Huntington papers, some of them, are nothing if not sensational. The meteor was seen by boys playing near a "haunted" house in the east end of the city. The youngsters were naturally somewhat frightened by the rather uncommon occurrence and told of it to some "oldest inhabitants," who "recollected" about a murdered man, buried treasure, lovely graves and various other spooky things. This was enough for a starter, and on the following morning a weird story appeared in the press, based upon the meteoric display of the previous evening.

It may be of interest to recall that in March, 1875, an aerolite passed over Fayette-co. in a westerly direction. It emitted no light, but its rush through the air was heard by many persons, as also its explosion a few seconds later.

Another aerolite fell in November, 1912, the rush and bursting being heard by hundreds. Sometimes after an observant squirrel hunter in Meade-co. located a fragment, weighing several hundred pounds. The broken branches and saplings indicated the line of its direction to the earth. A suit between the finder and landholder followed, but after its adjustment, the stone was purchased at a snug figure for the Smithsonian Institute.

P. S., likewise N. B. In its occidental flight Monday evening the blazing stone passed adzactly over the ghostly spot where, 48 years ago, come next June, three men were hung without the intervention of Judge or jury. If the boys who saw our meteor had known this gruesome fact, what hair-raising, hair-curdling stories they might have told!

HON. MORG. THOMAS DEAD.

George Morgan Thomas, 85 years old, well-known lawyer and prominent in Kentucky politics, died at Vanceburg. He was the father-in-law of former Congressman S. J. Pugh. If the NEWS is correct in its history Mr. Thomas once visited Louisa as a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket. He was of the old "Radical" type of politicians, and the triangular fight between him and John D. Young, Democrat, and Thomas M. Green, Independent, was a very bitter one.

The three candidates indulged in rather warm personalities which finally grew so pointed that mutual friends prevailed upon them to let up on that line of "argument." It was a very common thing those days for Congress to refuse to allow a Democrat to be seated, if his opponent filed a notice of contest, and this fact caused Mr. Green to ask his audience, when the rival candidates spoke in the old court house in Louisa if it would not be better to elect him than to elect Young, who would not be permitted to take his seat, or to be misrepresented by Morgan Thomas. In "hat" same debate there was also much talk about "cracking the whip" over somebody's shoulders, also a shaking of fists in each other faces, but no blows were struck and the candidates amicably ate supper together. Peace to their ashes.

ADVISES REPUBLICANS NOT TO TRY FOR JOBS

Langley Tells Constituents That Democrats Will Get Postmasterships.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Representative John W. Langley has advised all of his Republican constituents who are now postmasters in fourth-class offices in Kentucky or who wish to secure such preferment, not to waste their time taking competitive examinations.

The Congressman points out that, while Republicans may pass competitive examinations, a Democrat will always pass them, too, and as long as a Democrat has a certificate of passage he will be selected under this administration.

Mr. Langley compressed all these views in a letter to a Republican postmaster in his district who wanted to serve this administration in the same capacity. He admits he would do the same things the Democrats are doing if he had the chance.

"If I were you," he writes good-humoredly, "I would not waste a minute on the examination, but continue to perform the duties of your office and be prepared to yield gracefully to your Democratic successor when he is ready to qualify. I take it that the process of decapitation will be as expeditious as the machinery propelled by hungry Democrats, can make it."

Free Presents to Mothers From the Druggists of Lawrence, Johnson, Martin, Floyd and Pike Counties

They Will Give Away Free to Mothers With Small Children Full Size 25-Cent Package of the New "External" Vapor Treatment That Relieves Croup in Fifteen Minutes—Colds Overnight.

No one knows better than the skilled druggist the dangerous character of most cough and cold preparations. To produce results these remedies must contain some form of narcotic or some one of the coal tar products. These drugs are injurious to the stomach, especially to the delicate stomachs of little children.

Druggists have long sought for some direct method of reaching cold troubles—for some form of vapor treatment that could be inhaled direct to the lungs and air passages.

In a little North Carolina town a druggist discovered how to combine Thymol, Eucalyptol, Menthol, Camphor, Oil of Pine, etc., in the form of a salve so that when applied to the chest and throat the heat of the body would release these volatile products in the form of vapors.

These vapors are inhaled all night long, at the same time the preparation is absorbed through the skin taking out the soreness and tightness. The effect for all cold troubles is remarkable, no matter whether head colds or deep chest colds. For croup positive relief is assured in fifteen minutes. For all forms of bronchial troubles, sore throat, difficult breathing, etc., this new treatment will be found unusually effective.

ALFALFA IN KENTUCKY.

Scattered about in many sections of Kentucky one finds farmers who have some alfalfa growing upon their farms. From a productive standpoint many of these fields of alfalfa are drag to level the ground and follow with a roller to firm it. I drilled the corn, which was a Yellow Dent variety, on May 14, dropping a kernel of corn about every six and a half inches in the rows. I laid the rows off by hand about three feet wide and had twenty-six rows in all upon my plot. During the early growing season I thinned the plants to a stand of eight to thirteen inches, an average of about ten inches, and at the end of the season had about 13,000 plants upon my acre.

"I harrowed the ground before the corn was up, and in eight days after planting I began harrowing with a light one-horse harrow, going through the corn twice a week for two weeks. I then hoed the corn, after which I went through it three times with a light harrow and block when the corn was laid by."

It cost Mr. Hutson just 5.3 cents a bushel to produce his remarkable corn crop.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF

HAIR STOPS FALLING.

Girls! Try this! Makes hair thick, glossy, fluffy, beautiful—No more itching scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toleter counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any.

It that has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

WARFIELD, KY.

Quite a reception was given the young married couple, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Haws, on Friday last by the bridegroom's brother's family. They were married on January 2 at Louisa, Rev. Hewlett officiating. The bride was Miss Nora Brown, of Henrietta, Ky. Immediately after the ceremony they prepared to leave for Portsmouth, O., where they spent their honeymoon.

A very quiet wedding took place Monday, the contracting parties being Elmer Wiles and Miss Thelma Bowen, of Crum. The bridegroom was one of our citizens. The wedding supper would be better designated a feast for it was a feast fit for Kings. Everyone enjoyed the supper. We would be pleased if somebody would get married every day if they would always celebrate it with a feast like the one we enjoyed last evening. Rev. Jas. Booth was the officiating minister.

Chas. C. Spencer was a business visitor in Fort Gay and Louisa Saturday and Sunday.

EUREKA.

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED.

Mother! Don't hesitate! If cross, feverish, constipated, give

"California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels are not a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax six children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

This should appeal to men that want to raise cattle, hogs, sheep, or any kind of stock, and the man that wants to garden, raise fruits or berries, etc., for the market is excellent here. The market is the dairyman next, the live stock man next, etc. I have farms suited for all purposes, many of them on the best pikes in the county, some on good roads, all handy to school and church. I get a good many questions asked me: "Are there any negroes in the school district near such a farm you have advertised?" I have no farms in negro settlements, so there are no mixed schools here. Many of the farms I have for sale are close to my own. You may find men that will tell you before you get to me that it is too far out. Don't stop. Come on. I can show you better. The land is better out here, is much smoother and the roads are just as good. I have several good farms for sale with good locations for store, blacksmith shops, and many good opportunities for men to make money. Come and see me before you buy. Write or call me over the Bell phone. Write to Scioto, Ohio. Always come on No. 15 on the N & W. Write four days before you start. I will meet you with rig.

A committee of naval officers soon will visit Ashland, Paducah and Evansville to inspect sites for the proposed Government armor plate factory.

It is stated that an early fight is to begin at Frankfort to repeal the act conferring on women the right to vote upon questions pertaining to schools.

The Portsmouth Blade calls on James Benson Foraker to "steer the national ship into safe and pleasant

Japan is afflicted with a double disaster. In the north 10,000,000 people are suffering from famine. In the south volcanic eruptions have done great damage and the fate of the inhabitants of Sakura Island, where the volcano Kakura Jima is active, is in doubt.

The Court of Appeals has decided that the two amendments to the constitution of Kentucky, voted last November, are invalid. The reason for setting them aside is that the Secretary of State advertised them only sixty days, while the constitution requires 90 days. The amendments paved the way to working convicts on public roads and revising the tax laws.

Last Tuesday, the 13th, was Governor McCreary's last night in the old mansion, sleeping in the bed which he has used during two administrations. The Gov. said: "I cannot turn my back on the old house and the old furniture and their associations without a touch of regret. I spent happy days there with my wife and my son, and when I came back to occupy the mansion
I found much to remind me of those old days, though I was alone."

The Governor will hold his first reception in the new mansion next Tuesday night.

Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, last surviving Lieutenant General of the Confederate army, died Thursday night at his home, Glen Lily, in Hart county. He was born in 1823 on the farm where he died, and during his long and distinguished career he was an American soldier in Mexico, an officer in the Confederate army, Governor of his native
State and the nominee of the National Democratic party for Vice President of the United States.

He was buried at Frankfort Saturday afternoon within a few feet of the Mexican War monument, simplicity marking the services, which were attended by hundreds of former friends from Louisville and Munfordville as well as the State capital.

General Buckner is survived by his widow and one son, Lieut. Simon
B. Buckner, U. S. A.

Mr. John F. Hager, of Ashland, was one of many honorary pallbearers at the funeral.

A bill drafted by Representative Oliver would do away with the operation of the indeterminate sentence law in Kentucky on the ground that under that law justice is not always meted out according to the deserts of persons undergoing penal servitude.

"Say, for instance, that two men, on the same day, are sentenced to serve from two to twenty-one years for some offense," Mr. Oliver said.
"Let us suppose that one of these men has influential and wealthy friends back of him, and that the other has not. The result, in a great many cases, would be that at the expiration of the minimum term of the more favored man his wealthy friends would place in the hands of an attorney $1,000 or more, with instructions for him to secure the release of the prisoner. The attorney, of course, would get busy and if the prisoner's record had been good the chances are that he would be paroled.
The other man, however, although his record might be as good as that of his fellow-prisoner, would remain in confinement, the chances are, merely because he happened not to have influential friends or wealth to interest themselves in his behalf."

GOV. McCREARY'S MEETING
WITH MR. TILDEN.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 9.—Gov. Mc-Creary was compelled by the press of official business to decline an invitation he much wished to accept to attend the meeting in Carnegie Hall, New York, in commemoration of the centenary of Samuel J. Tilden.
Gov. McCreary to-day recounted his meeting with Mr. Tilden during the contest over the succession to the presidency. McCreary then, as now, was Governor of Kentucky.

"I went to see Mr. Tilden," said the Governor. "Many Kentuckians wanted to fight for him. I had been tendered regiments and brigades. I desired to know what Mr. Tilden intended to do, so I could satisfy thes men, and I went to his home in company with the National Democratic Chairman. The latter left us together and I said: 'Mr. Tilden, I have been tendered regiments and brigades to fight for you, and I came to you to find out whether you intend to fight.'

"He turned to me and said: 'Gov.
McCreary, were you old enough to have served in the late Civil War?'"

"I replied in the affirmative, and he then went on: "Then you are in a position to know more of the horrors of war than I do. Do you like flowers?" I said I did. "Then come with me to see my garden," was his response, and we walked out doors together. There I told him I wished to ask him several direct questions, and asked him the first one:
'Have you made up your mind
whether, under any circumstances, you would fight?'

"I have," he replied, decidedly.
"I won't precipitate civil war under any circumstances to get the presidency."

"That being the case," I responded, "I need not ask any of the other questions I have in mind."

"Mr. Tilden was a small man with a paralytic arm which shook and he kept it with his thumb hung in his button hole. I remember him well.
I was a great Tilden man, and I wish I could attend the meeting, at which I was invited to speak."

JAMES ALLEN FRAZIER
PASSES INTO ETERNITY.

Mr. James Allan Frazier, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Ft. Gay and Wayne-co., W. Va., died at his home early Wednesday morning last, after long illness caused by tuberculosis of the lungs. He was 64 years old and is survived by his widow, three children, and three brothers. The children are Mrs. R. L. Vinson, of Louisa, Mrs. W. E. Morris, of Edinburg, Ind., children by a former marriage, and one child by the second marriage. Mr. Frazier's first wife was a daughter of the late Granville Thompson, of Wayne-co. The surviving brothers are Sam, of Ft. Gay, William, of Logan, W. Va., and Lat. of Catlettsburg. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock and will be conducted by Vinson Lodge F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a faithful member. The Rev. H. B. Hulett will conduct the religious service.

James Allen Frazier was in all respects a worthy man. He bore an unblemished reputation and in all the walks of life conducted himself in such a way that he has transmitted to his children the priceless heritage of a good name. He will be sorely missed by kindred and friends, by the Southern Methodist Church, of which he had long been a member, and by the community in which he lived. He was prepared for the Great Change, and the end was peace.

GOING AFTER PISTOL "TOTERS."

Representative C. D. Arnett has introduced an act fixing the punishment of carrying concealed deadly weapons at fine of $50 to $200 and jail sentence of from ten to forty days. Also provides for disenfranchisement for two years on first conviction and penitentiary sentence on second conviction.

This is the best measure yet presented intended to effectually stop one of the most dangerous and despotic habits of which anyone can be guilty—not only dangerous and despicable but cowardly and entirely useless. The present law, even when rigidly enforced, does not seem to deter a tough from carrying a "gun," and it puts a decent man at the mercy of a bully. Few of the roughnecks who now go loaded with artillery would do it if a penitentiary term faced them, and few yet of the so called better class whose equipment seems incomplete without a revolver would annex it to their persons if they knew that by so doing they ran a risk of being disenfranchised. The NEWS hopes Mr. Arnett's bill will become a law.

Comparatively Few Indictments.

The fact that the grand jury of Lawrence county, after a week of searching work, was able to find but thirty-seven true bills, speaks volumes for the people of this county. One hundred and twenty-nine witnesses were examined. They came from all parts of the county which shows that the jury had the drag net well spread, and in spite of this general inquiry the result was gratifyingly small. It is good to know that for some time the number of indictments has been growing less, showing conclusively that the people, as a whole, are becoming a better people. The fact is, that since the sale of whiskey in this county is no longer lawful crimes and offenses are fewer. A great majority of offenses which were and are committed in the commonwealth are committed when the lawbreaker is under the influence of strong drink. The stuff is harder to get now, hence there is less drunkenness, less crime.

PREACHED WITH BROKEN LEG.

The following from the Huntington Advertiser concerning a former prominent Louisa preacher will be read with interest:

Entering his pulpit with the aid of crutches and standing with his knee on a chair, Rev. Roscoe Murray pastor of the Washington-ave. Baptist church, delivered two sermons Sunday while laboring under difficulties and suffering from injuries which would have kept many men in bed.

Mr. Murray fell Saturday while going from his study to the parsonage and sustained a broken rib and a dislocated ankle.

He was in bed from the time of the accident until Sunday morning, when he gamely went to the church and preached, performing in his usual eloquent and able manner despite the pain he was suffering. This was repeated in the evening.

Mr. Murray is much improved now although still compelled to walk on crutches.

G. W. Shivel has moved from Gallup to Louisa. He recently sold his farm.

Mrs. Dicy Ratcliff, Mrs. Suia Ratcliff and Miss Minerva Ratcliff, of Clifford, visited relatives here this week and left Thursday for Kise.

ESCAPED FROM OFFICER.

PERSONAL MENTION.

On Thursday afternoon Sheriff Stone arrested Milt Caperton, who was out on bond charged with detaining a woman. He had been indicted by the recent grand jury. When taken into court by the sheriff the Judge directed the jailer to take him to jail. When this official had gone as far as the back door of the jail he was struck in the back of his head with a quart bottle of whisky in the hands of Ed. Caperton and knocked down. Both Caperton's ran, Ed crossing the bridge into West Virginia and Milt crossed by other means.

Marshal Muncey fired two shots at Milt as he ran. Jailer Wells went to the hospital where his wounds were dressed.

THE CHURCHES.

On Sunday evening last the Rev. B. M. Keith preached the first of a series of sermons on the Second Coming of Christ. At the Epworth League Judge M. M. Redwine delivered an excellent address. The attendance was very large.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Five thousand three hundred and fifty-two boys in the state of West Virginia during the year 1913 studied instructions, tested seed, prepared land and made at least a start in planting and cultivating corn. It is indeed unfortunate that all these energetic boys could not win large prizes to encourage them in their work. More than 900 won valuable cash or merchandise prizes at the various county shows and every single boy who carried his work through to the finish won the satisfaction which accompanies the completion of task well performed.

MARTINSBURG, Jan. 13.—In the circuit court at Berkeley Springs, Douglas Gibson pleaded guilty to second degree murder for the killing of Patrolman James C. Orr, of Martinsburg, a Baltimore and Ohio railroad policeman, at Hanes, W.

WHEELING, Jan. 13.—That the death of James Pryor, aged 73, who died in the city workhouse Wednesday, was due to neglect is the grave allegation brought by William Gliday, an expatriate, released from the institution yesterday after serving 30 days on a plain drunk charge. Gliday also charges that the food and sanitary conditions at the workhouse are terrible.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Jan. 13.—The grand jury adjourned without reporting true bills against either the B. & N. or the husbands who have deserted wives. It is understood that Judge Sturgiss will call the attention of the attorney general of the state to the B. & N. matter. A total of twenty indictments was returned by the grand jury.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 12.—On a charge of assaulting Miss Georgia Chante school teacher, Mrs. Eli J. Mason, wife of a member of the West Virginia legislature, was given a hearing at Montgomery, Fayette-co., tonight and ordered to pay a fine of $5 and costs. It was alleged Mrs. Mason had attacked Miss Chante after the teacher had whipped Mrs. Mason's son.

BLUEFIELD, Jan. 13.—A pathetic accident occurred at Vivian in which a little five year old child was the victim. Little Toney Molesky, the son of Alex and Rose Molesky, was run over by a passing freight train and the left leg of the child so badly mangled that amputation was necessary. The little patient is now at the Welch hospital and is in a very serious condition.

WHEELING, Jan. 13.—Over $11,000 are on deposit in the United States postal savings bank at the local postoffice, with the deposits averaging more than $15,000 annually and the withdrawals running close to the $11,000 mark.

This shows the local department to be in a very flourishing condition with present indications that the business for the present year will be far in excess of that of any time since the postal bank has been established.

WHEELING, Jan. 13.—Attorneys are making preparations for a resumption of the inquiry by the state public service commission here on the 20th. The hearing is for the purpose of passing upon the proposed readjustment of gas rates in the upper Pan Handle counties of West Virginia by the Manufacturers' Light and Heat company and its subsidiary companies.

Huntington, Jan. 10.—Huntington has become the center of distribution for a literal flood of counterfeit "Buffalo" nickels. Several days ago the attention of the officials of the treasury department was called to the fact that Huntington was being deluged with counterfeit nickels and they have been quietly working on the matter. The banks have rejected hundreds of the bogus nickels.

Many picture shows in the city are being made the victims in the affair, one show taking in last night almost three dollars worth of the bad coins. The two coins are so nearly similar that only close scrutiny will reveal the fraud. By weighing the coins a difference can be detected. The good one weighs about three grains more than the counterfeit one.

An amusing incident has been brought to light by the investigation. Dr. N. B. Ferguson, who has been collecting the "Buffalo" coins for some time as curios, counted his collection this morning and found to his surprise and chagrin that out of $4.80 worth of nickels the greater part were counterfeit. So wide and so heavily have they been circulated here that the authorities believe that it is some local party who is responsible for their mintage. They are remaining quiet about the matter, but it is thought that some startling revelations will be made in the near future.

Last Thursday was municipal election day here. There were three tickets in the field and a good bit of friendly rivalry. Politics cut no figure as everybody knows Wayne is at least 75 per cent Democratic. The following officers were elected and will begin their term of office on Feb. 1:

Recorder—Dr. J. R. Keesee.
Council—R. C. Taylor, J. T. Lambert, Walter Perdue, D. W. Frazier and J. H. Skaggs. Wayne News.

"CASCARETS" ALWAYS STRAIGHTEN YOU UP.

If Costive, Headachy, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad—
Clean your Liver and Bowels.

Get a 10-cent box now. You men and women who can't feel strong—those who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clear with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

ed phrase! Speak it from the heart and then strive to make everyone's New Year a happy year and yours will be happy, indeed.

The Christian Gentleman.

He is above a mean thing. He cannot stoop to a mean fraud. He invades no secret in the keeping of another. He betrays no secrets confided to his own keeping. He never struts in borrowed plumage. He never takes selfish advantage of our mistakes. He uses no ignoble weapons in controversy. He never stabs in the dark. He is ashamed of innuendoes. He is not one thing to a man's face and another behind his back. If by accident he comes in possession of his neighbor's counsels, he passes upon them an act of instant oblivion. He bears sealed packages without tampering with the wax. Papers not meant for his eye, when they flutter at his window or lie open before him in unguarded exposure, are sacred to him. He invades no privacy of others, however the sentry sleeps. Bolts and bars, locks and keys, hedges and pickets, bonds and securities, notice to trespassers, are none of them for him. He may be trusted alone, out of sight—near the thinnest partition—anywhere. He buys no offices, he sells none, he intrigues for none. He would rather fail of his rights than win them through dishonesty. He will eat honest bread. He tramples on no sensitive feeling. He insults no man. If he have rebuke for another, he is straightforward, open, manly. He cannot descend to scurvy. In short, whatever he judges honorable he practices towards every man.

Careless Words.

How frequently, in a thoughtless moment, or in sport, we utter words which sink deep into some heart, inflicting untold anguish, and blotting the pages of the life-book with burning tears. Time may heal the wound, and troubled waves may be hushed into quietness; the fire that scorched the quivering heart strings may be quenched, but bitter aches will ever mark the pathway of those careless words. It may be that a weight of sorrow that bowed the fainting spirit to the earth was rendered heavier to be borne by the added grief of a thoughtless word. Perhaps an unguarded expression has been uttered, and the tongue of malice repeats it with a new coloring, and a meaning never intended, and thus the strongest ties of affection have been severed.

Be A Man.

Foolish spending is the father of poverty. Do not be ashamed of hard work. Work for the best salaries or wages you can get, but work for half price rather than be idle. Be your own master, and do not let society or fashion swallow up your individuality—hat, coat and boots. Do not eat up or wear out all you eat. Compel your selfish body to earn. Compel your selfish body to spare something for profits saved. Be stingy to your own appetite, but merciful to others' necessities. Help others, and ask no help for yourself. See that you are proud. Let your pride be of the right kind. Be too proud to be lazy; too proud to give up without conquering every difficulty; too proud to wear a coat you cannot afford to buy; too proud to be in company that you cannot keep up with expenses, too proud to lie, or steal, or cheat too proud to be stingy.

Do not drift. We are living in an intense age; despite the frivolity and gayety everywhere in evidence never was there before a time when life was regarded as such an earnest thing; never before was so much required of each individual. Are you doing your part?

NEGRESS KILLED
AT JENKINS.

In a wrangle over a five dollar bill which one found and both claimed, Lee Driver, a negro miner at Jenkins, shot and instantly killed Mrs. John Lockhart, negress, according to the police, three bullets entering the right lung. Her husband, who was also engaged in the quarrel, was shot twice, and his injuries may prove fatal.

Driver escaped into the Cumberland mountains, but within an hour three posse, composed chiefly of colored men, fell upon his trail. He successfully eluded them for two days; but fearing that he would be caught and subjected to mob violence, he gave up to the authorities at Wise, Va., and will be brought back to Whitesburg for trial.

FERGUSON HEIRS WIN.

Some twelve years ago Jno. Ferguson sold to Sam McCoy a tract of coal land lying on Ferguson creek and containing about one hundred acres. This tract had been given Ferguson by his father, upon the condition that at his death the remainder should be divided equally among his children.

The heirs of Vernon Ferguson, deceased (grandson of Jno. Ferguson) filed suit against the grantee, Sam McCoy, for the recovery of a one-fourth interest in the property, which case was tried before special Judge Halbert here last week. The court held that John Ferguson took only a life estate, and that the defendant McCoy could not purchase more than this. An injunction was issued to stop further mining on the property, but the question of damage for the coal that had already been mined was reserved for future consideration. Staton and Pinson were attorneys for plaintiffs.

COURT ADJOURNED.

After a short but busy term of two weeks, the special term of circuit court was adjourned last Friday, and special Judge W. C. Halbert returned to his home at Vanceburg, Ky., by the morning train Saturday.

Judge Halbert made a most favorable president, and the attorneys of the Pikeco. bar generally speak in terms of high compliment of his just and impartial rulings.

POLICE COURT BUSY.

The Pikeville Police Court is one of the busiest forums of justice in Eastern Kentucky. Our excellent Police Judge Robt. L. Miller, who recently assumed the duties of office, in the streets. After looking into other matters council adjourned without a word on the stock question. Tuesday morning Judge Miller prepared to begin the strict enforcement of certain old ordinances on this subject, and to prevent such enforcement a hasty meeting was called early in the day for the purpose of enacting a stock law.

The following is section 3 of the new enactment. How do you like it?

"It shall be lawful for cows to run at large in the corporate limits of the city of Pikeville at all times except from sunset to sunrise, and it shall be unlawful for such cows to run at large from sunset to sunrise, with a penalty of one dollar for each offense.

That means, dear citizen, that these guardians of the city's health and cleanliness have given free reign to the cows during the day time to stand on the sidewalks or kill themselves galloping up and down the newly paved streets of the busy town of Pikeville, and for one dollar they may carry it on all night, too.

If Pikeville's citizens would save her reputation for progress, cleanliness and healthful beauty, let a flood of petitions asking the repeal of the entire enactment pour in upon the city council that will indicate in no uncertain terms that the public does not approve a single syllable of it.

WINTER TERM.

The winter and spring term of the Pikeville Graded and High School opened for an 18-weeks term last Monday morning. Every department was thoroughly crowded, and as Mrs. R. C. Elliott, teacher, says, they were packed in her room very much like sardines in a box. During the past two years both the graded school and our excellent Presbyterian College have displayed a marvelous efficiency, and the diligent efforts of the teachers of both institutions have been rewarded by record-breaking attendance.

The prospects are bright for a new public school building, and it is badly needed, with modern facilities, to care for the great and growing demand for the education of the children of the mountains.

LETCHER COUNTY.

WHITESBURG, KY., Jan. 13.—The January term of the Letcher Circuit Court convened here Monday, a most important session, Judge John F. Butler presiding. There are a large number of interesting civil and penal cases, besides the docket is crowded with murder and malicious stabbing suits. Judge Butler in instructing the grand jury said:

"There are seven murder cases on the docket, but at the end of this term I am going to make it a point to say that the docket will be cleared. We don't need bad men and the sooner the country is rid of them the better it is for all concerned. Crime must decrease." The first day showed the largest crowd perhaps ever seen before at an opening of court.

However the next session of the court will try to arrange for the bridges.

Smallpox is said to be getting general over Letcher county and business is being greatly interfered with on every hand. One case has developed in Whitesburg, while in the head of Thornton school seven cases had developed up till Monday and it is said here the patrons of the district have ordered the school closed indefinitely. In the Line Fork, Boone's Fork and Rockhouse creek sections there are a large number of new cases, while Cumberland river section is considerably infected. So far the County Board of Health has done little toward trying to stop the prevalence of the disease.

The grand jury to-day returned an indictment against Arthur Roberts charging him with the wilful murder of Wilson Sizemore his brother-in-law which took place at Neon above here in this county a month ago. Both men are from Breathitt county. The case will be tried at the present term of the court.

WHITESBURG, KY., Jan. 8.—Commissioners of the County Court who were instructed to go to Neon and assess for damages the property of John Bentley in condemnation proceedings for a railroad right of way for the Yonts Fork branch of the Louisville & Eastern have returned here, after assessing the damage at $19,500.

The property consists of seven town lots.

Behind the action of the commissioners in the case is the story of how Bentley lost many thousands of dollars by his refusal to sell the property to the railroad at a figure much higher than that placed by the commissioners.

Some time ago Bentley, realizing that the section of the country around the present site of Neon was bound to develop, owing to the richness of its mineral and timber resources, purchased considerable land at a low figure. When the town of Neon was established, Bentley sold much of his land at a good profit, but retained seven town lots, and on one of these he built a store, which he has been running ever since, and which he has been finding profitable.

When the railroad decided to build its branch up Yonts Fork it was found that the route would pass through that section of the town where Bentley had his store. Accordingly efforts were made to purchase the property from Bentley at a good stiff figure. He refused to sell, however, declaring that he was doing a profitable business, and that he did not wish to be disturbed.

The offers of the railroad company were gradually increased, and finally it is claimed that $50,000 was offered, but Bentley still held on.

Despairing of being able to buy Bentley out, the railroad finally brought condemnation proceedings,

Are You One Of Those Who Habitually Catch Cold?

Investigation Shows That Certain Occupations and Professions Are Constantly Prolific Causes For Frequent Colds.
 What Can Be Done About It?

We read a lot of medical literature that only entertains, but does not instruct. In this strenuous period, when life is put to such a severe strain, we need light and facts how to prevent disease more than talk that entertains.

Do you know that the clerk and the shop girl, the merchant and the professional man, confined to sedentary work, are daily creating those conditions that conduce to colds?

Mental fatigue, worry, heavy strain, nervousness resulting from desk or store work are the easiest means for the development of colds. The average life of a clergyman is less than that of a farmer—sedentary work.

Sedentary life, especially where it means the consumption of brain tissue, often leads to over-eating; there is no more common cause of colds than over-eating.

When the digestive organs are weighed down with an excess of food, the liver and kidneys and other important vital organs are overworked, vitality is lower and there is less resistance; slight exposure, which under ordinary conditions causes no harm, results in a bad cold.

To relieve a cold, a good expectorant or cough remedy such as PERUNA should be conveniently at hand to be taken at the very first sign of the cold. But what can be done to stop the frequency of colds to such people that are confined to sedentary work?

Start with a cold water towel bath, walk to your place of business, or devote an hour of each day to outdoor life, take a dose of PERUNA before each meal, to tone up your system, eat moderately, rise early and sleep in a room full of fresh air.

Mr. L. A. Richardson, a substantial druggist from Marine, Illinois, commenting on the merits of proprietary medicines, writes as follows:

"I have been engaged in the retail drug business here for the past forty years. During this time I have seen many patent medicines come into use, flourish for a time and then gradually disappear. There are very few of these remedies that possess enough real merit to insure them long life. PERUNA has always been a good seller with us, with a marked increase from year to year. This change in the formula some years ago, by the addition of the slightly laxative properties, has made it a reliable remedy for constipation and for colds. I take pleasure in urging my brother druggists to recommend it for these two ailments."

Those who wish to begin the cold water towel bath should have a copy of the ILLS of Life. Sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

and the assessment of the damages at $19,500 was the result.

FLOYD COUNTY.

T. M. Branham and sister Sallie arrived here yesterday on the noon train from Tulsa, Okla., with the remains of their father, George W. Branham, who died there the 10th inst. of paralysis. Mr. Branham was born and raised in Floyd-co. and in 1896 moved to Catlettsburg, from which place he moved to Tulsa, Okla., where he died. Mr. Branham had many friends in Floyd-co. and was known all along the Big Sandy valley, he having been engaged in carrying freight up and down the river a great part of his life, either by push boat or steamer, and was owner of the steamer Favorite when she sank, after which he quit the river and engaged in the hotel business at Catlettsburg. He was buried in the Martin cemetery at Dwale, by the side of his mother. Mr. Branham was 69 years old and had served in the Federal Army during the Civil War. Rev. Tygart, formerly of Whitehouse had charge of the funeral service.

Misses Anny Branham, Kit Preston, Ethel Childress, of Emma were in town to-day having dental work done.

Mrs. G. W. Vance, who some time ago fell and broke her thigh, is very low.

The revival which has been in progress at the Presbyterian church came to a close last night. This has been one of the greatest revivals held in Prestonsburg for a great many years. Rev. Wireman, a young Methodist minister, had charge of the meeting and was assisted by Rev. S. W. McGuire, Rev. Henry Ford and several laymen. There were several conversions and all the churches were greatly revived.

Miss Ruth Dempsey, of Offutt is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wortman, of this place.

Mrs. B. C. Mellon, who has had typhoid fever is very much improved.

Mrs. T. O. Burchett is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. James Garnett and little daughter, who have been in Jackson, Ky., for the last 6 months, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Davison.
